

117TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. _____

To establish in the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor of the Department of State a Special Envoy for the Human Rights of LGBTQI Peoples, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Mr. MARKEY introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on _____

A BILL

To establish in the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor of the Department of State a Special Envoy for the Human Rights of LGBTQI Peoples, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “International Human 5 Rights Defense Act of 2021”.

6 SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

7 In this Act:

1 (1) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMIT-
2 TEES.—The term “appropriate congressional com-3 mittees” means—

4 (A) the Committee on Foreign Relations
5 and the Committee on Appropriations of the 6 Senate; and

7 (B) the Committee on Foreign Affairs and 8 the Committee on Appropriations of the House
9 of Representatives.

10 (2) GENDER IDENTITY.—The term “gender 11 identity” means the gender-related identity, appear-12 ance, or mannerisms or other gender-related charac-
13 teristics of an individual, regardless of the individ-
14 ual’s designated sex at birth.

15 (3) INTERSEX.—The term “intersex” means in-16 dividuals born with sex characteristics (including 17 genitals, gonads, or chromosome patterns) that vary 18 from typical binary notions of male or female bodies
19 and is an umbrella term used to describe a wide 20 range of natural bodily variations.

21 (4) LGBTQI.—The term “LGBTQI” means
22 lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, or 23 intersex.

1 (5) SEXUAL ORIENTATION.—The term “sexual 2 orientation” means actual or perceived homosex-
3 uality, heterosexuality, or bisexuality.

4 SEC. 3. FINDINGS.

5 Congress makes the following findings:

6 (1) Around the world, LGBTQI people face vio-
7 lence, discrimination, hatred, and bigotry.

8 (2) Sixty-nine countries criminalize same-sex re-9 lations and at least three countries prohibit the pub-10 lic support of the LGBTQI community. That is 11 equal to 35 percent of United Nations member 12 states.

13 (3) In several countries, homosexuality is a 14 crime that is punishable by death.

15 (4) Intersex people experience prejudice and 16 discrimination, including the common performance
17 of medically unnecessary surgeries without their con-
18 sent or approval, because their bodies do not con-19 form to other people’s expectations about sex and 20 gender.

21 (5) Violence and discrimination based on sexual 22 orientation and gender identity are documented in 23 the Department of State’s annual Human Rights 24 Report to Congress. The 2019 report continues to 25 show a clear pattern of human rights violations in

1 every region of the world based on sexual orientation
2 and gender identity. These violations include mur-
3 der, rape, torture, death threats, extortion, and im-
4 prisonment, as well as loss of employment, housing, 5 access to health care, and other forms of societal 6 stigma and discrimination. The report further docu-
7 ments LGBTQI-specific restrictions on basic free-
8 doms of assembly, press, and speech in every region
9 of the world.

10 (6) In 2013, the Russian Duma passed a law 11 banning so-called “homosexual propaganda”, which 12 effectively makes it a crime to publicly support 13 LGBTQI equality or even discuss homosexuality.
14 This pernicious law is the basis for similar so-called 15 “anti-propaganda” legislation in countries across 16 Eastern Europe and Central Asia, including in 17 Moldova, Kyrgyzstan, and Belarus.

18 (7) On April 1, 2017, the Russian newspaper 19 Novaya Gazeta reported that the government of the 20 autonomous republic of Chechnya had been arrest-
21 ing, detaining, and torturing gay and bisexual men
22 in secret prisons since early 2017. An Organization
23 for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE)
24 fact-finding report released in December 2018 con-25 firmed the atrocities, documenting “several waves of 1 violations of human rights abuses of persons based 2 on their sexual orientation and gender identity”. Re-

3 ports throughout 2020 suggest the purge has contin-4 ued.

5 (8) In May 2020, the Hungarian Parliament
6 voted to eliminate the ability for transgender and 7 intersex Hungarians to legally change their gender
8 on official documents. In June 2020, Poland’s presi-
9 dent pledged to ban the “propagation of LGBT ide-10 ology,” and nearly a third of Polish towns and mu-11 nicipalities have now declared themselves to be 12 “LGBT-free zones”.

13 (9) In December 2013, under the guise of pro-
14 hibiting marriage equality through the Same Sex
15 Marriage (Prohibition) Act, the Government of Nige-
16 ria adopted a law that further criminalized same-sex
17 relations and support for LGBTQI people, endan-18 gering neighbors, friends, doctors, and landlords of 19 LGBTQI people. In August 2018, 57 men at a party 20 in Lagos were arrested under this law and 47 were 21 later charged in December 2019 for “public show of 22 same sex amorous relationship”. While the case was 23 thrown out in October 2020 due to deficiencies in 24 the prosecution, the men suffered significant harm
25 over the course of the two-year trial.

1 (10) Several countries in South Asia continue
2 to have draconian laws that criminalize homosexual
3 acts, which place LGBTQI people in danger and un-4 dermine their ability to live free from persecution.

5 (11) In February 2014, the Government of 6 Uganda adopted a law making “aggravated homo-7 sexuality” a crime punishable with life imprisonment 8 and concurrently, the Government of Uganda also 9 passed laws severely limiting the basic freedoms of 10 speech and assembly for LGBTQI citizens. Although 11 the Constitutional Court overturned the Anti-Homo-
12 sexuality Act on a technicality in August 2014,
13 LGBTQI Ugandans continue to be subjected to dis-14 crimination and violence, and their government has 15 in recent years forcibly shut down even private Pride
16 celebrations in Kampala.

17 (12) In November 2016, the Government of 18 Tanzania banned all HIV and AIDS outreach
19 projects aimed at gay men, including those funded
20 by the President’s Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief
21 (PEPFAR), forcing the closure of United States-22 funded programs providing testing, condoms, and 23 care to gay men, exacerbating the health needs of 24 gay men in Tanzania, about 30 percent of whom are 25 HIV positive. In 2018, various government officials

1 announced crackdowns on the LGBTQI community, 2 including a threat by the governor of the largest 3 city, who announced a purge on LGBTQI individ-
4 uals and asked the public to report them.

5 (13) A 2020 report by Human Rights Watch 6 found that in the Northern Triangle countries of El 7 Salvador, Guatemala, and Honduras, “gangs specifi-
8 cally target LGBT people, killing, assaulting, threat-9 ening or extorting them”. A 2016 report noted that 10 transgender women in El Salvador have an average 11 life expectancy of less than 35 years due to violence, 12 discrimination, and femicide.

13 (14) Extreme violence in El Salvador, Nica-
14 ragua, Guatemala, and Honduras has driven 15 LGBTQI people to flee their countries or origin to 16 the United States for protection. At the United 17 States border with Mexico, LGBTQI asylum seekers
18 face additional violence and many have been re-19 turned to face persecution in their home countries or 20 in third countries that are not safe.

21 (15) On May 23, 2017, and again on July 13,
22 2018, gay men were publicly caned in the Indo-
23 nesian province of Aceh, while thousands of spec-
24 tators snapped pictures outside a mosque. More re-
25 cently, including in August 2020, police in Indonesia

1 have arrested men at private parties, sometimes re-
2 leasing their photographs to the news media, endan-
3 gering their lives. The August 2020 raid fits a dis-4 turbing pattern of Indonesian authorities using the 5 pornography law as a weapon to target LGBTQI 6 people.

7 (16) The Department of State Human Rights
8 Report for 2019 notes that Egyptian police arrest
9 LGBTQI persons on charges such as “debauchery”, 10 “prostitution”, and “violating the teachings of reli-11 gion”, leading to prison sentences of up to 10 years.
12 According to a local group, there have been more
13 than 250 arrests since 2013. Arrests have continued 14 apace in 2020. Rights groups also have reported on 15 the discredited use of “virginity” and “anal tests” 16 by Egyptian authorities to attempt to prove sexual 17 activity, assaults that may constitute cruel, degrad-18 ing, and inhuman treatment that can rise to the 19 level of torture under international human rights 20 law.

21 (17) Anti-LGBTQI laws not only endanger all 22 LGBTQI individuals, but also pose serious risks for 23 those associated with or caring for LGBTQI people.
24 Studies have shown that when LGBTQI people, es-25 pecially LGBTQI youth, face discrimination, they

1 are less likely to seek HIV testing, prevention, and 2 treatment services.

3 (18) According to the Trans Murder Monitoring 4 Project, which monitors homicides of transgender in-5 dividuals, 350 trans and gender-diverse were killed
6 between October 1, 2019, and September 30, 2020,
7 representing a 6 percent increase in reported mur-
8 ders from the 2019 update.

9 (19) According to the International Guidelines
10 on HIV/AIDS and Human Rights, as published by 11 the United Nations High Commissioner for Human 12 Rights, and according to the reports of the United 13 Nations Independent Expert on protection against 14 violence and discrimination based on sexual orienta-
15 tion and gender identity, countries should review 16 and reform criminal laws and correctional systems to 17 ensure that they are consistent with international 18 human rights obligations and are not misused or 19 targeted against vulnerable groups.

20 (20) Removing institutionalized discrimination
21 and targeted persecution against LGBTQI people
22 around the world is a critical step in the promotion 23 of human rights and global health internationally.

24 (21) Anti-LGBTQI laws and discrimination
25 pose significant risks for LGBTQI youth who come

1 out to their family or community and often face re-2 jection, homelessness, and limited educational and 3 economic opportunities. These factors contribute to 4 increased risks of substance abuse, suicide, and HIV
5 infection among LGBTQI youth.

6 (22) On December 6, 2011, President Barack
7 Obama released the “Presidential Memorandum—
8 International Initiatives to Advance the Human 9 Rights of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender 10 Persons”. The memorandum directed all Federal 11 agencies engaged abroad to ensure that United 12 States diplomacy and foreign assistance promote and 13 protect the human rights of LGBTQI persons.

14 (23) On February 23, 2015, Secretary of State
15 John Kerry appointed senior diplomat Randy Berry
16 as the Department of State’s first-ever Special 17 Envoy for the Human Rights of LGBTI Persons.
18 No person was named to that position during the 19 Trump Administration.

20 (24) On June 30, 2016, the United Nations
21 Human Rights Council passed a resolution cospon-
22 sored by the United States that established an Inde-23 pendent Expert on violence and discrimination based 24 on sexual orientation and gender identity to help

1 monitor and track discrimination and violence experi-
2 enced by LGBTQI persons around the world.

3 (25) At the annual Summit of Commonwealth
4 Nations in April 2018, United Kingdom Prime Min-
5 ister Theresa May issued an apology for discrimina-6 tory laws criminalizing same-sex relationships that 7 were imposed on British colonies around the world.
8 She also announced the creation of a fund to sup-
9 port legal reform efforts.

10 (26) In April 2018, Trinidad and Tobago’s
11 High Court of Justice issued a landmark ruling de-12 claring that laws which criminalize same-sex rela-
13 tionships between consenting adults are unconstitu-14 tional.

15 (27) In September 2018, the Supreme Court of 16 India decriminalized same-sex relationships. The 17 same court also has affirmed the rights of 18 transgender people as a protected “third gender”
19 under the Constitution of India.

20 (28) Angola decriminalized same-sex relation-
21 ships in January 2019, and prohibited discrimina-
22 tion against people on the basis of sexual orienta-
23 tion. In December 2020, the parliament of Bhutan
24 voted to decriminalize same-sex relationships.

1 (29) In January 2018, the Inter-American
2 Court of Human Rights issued an advisory opinion 3 declaring that the American Convention on Human 4 Rights, adopted at San Jose November 22, 1969,
5 grants the right of transgender people to change 6 their name and gender on public documents, and 7 that same-sex couples must be granted full legal 8 rights, including the right to marriage. This ruling 9 is animating legal reforms and human rights cases 10 across the Americas.

11 (30) In September 2018, the legislature in 12 Chile passed a groundbreaking legal gender recogni-13 tion law, which allows transgender individuals to 14 self-determine their legal gender in official docu-15 ments without a judicial determination or medical 16 interventions. The Government of Uruguay passed a 17 similarly expansive gender recognition law in 2018.

18 (31) In May 2020, the United Nations Inde-19 pendent Expert on protection against violence and 20 discrimination based on sexual orientation and gen-
21 der identity released a report on so-called “conver-22 sion therapy,” which is an umbrella term used to de-23 scribe interventions based on a belief that a person’s 24 sexual orientation or gender identity can and should 25 be changed. The report concludes that such practices

1 represent significant violations of rights to bodily au-
2 tonomy, health, and free expression, and can breach 3 the prohibition against torture and ill-treatment.
4 The Independent Expert concludes by calling for a 5 global ban on conversion therapy, noting that “the 6 psychological pain and suffering inflicted by prac-
7 tices of ‘conversion therapy’ are deep and long-last-8 ing and often exacerbate the risk of suicide”.

9 (32) The global COVID–19 pandemic has exac-
10 erbated inequalities that LGBTQI individuals face,
11 including access to healthcare, stigma, and discrimi-
12 nation.

13 (33) Some governments have enacted measures
14 that target or discriminate against LGBTQI individ-
15 uals and communities under the guise of COVID–19 16 public health precautions.

17 (34) In March 2020, Ugandan police arbitrarily
18 arrested 20 LGBTQI people living in a homeless 19 shelter, charging them with “a negligent act likely to 20 spread infection of disease”. They were released and 21 all charges were dropped after nearly two months in 22 prison.

23 (35) Gender-based quarantine rules have re-
24 sulted in increased violence against transgender indi-25 viduals and reports indicate an increase in

1 transphobic and homophobic rhetoric, as religious 2 leaders and others scapegoat LGBTQI people for 3 the spread of the disease.

4 (36) COVID–19 has also increased barriers to 5 access health care for LGBTQI individuals. In addi-6 tion to discrimination in care, the health needs of 7 LGBTQI people may be deprioritized. For example, 8 HIV prevention activities have largely ceased due to 9 the pandemic, elevating risks for transmission
10 among key population groups.

11 (37) Due to stay-at-home restrictions, LGBTQI 12 people may be confined to hostile households, put-13 ting them at increased risk for gender-based violence
14 and compounding mental health challenges.

15 (38) LGBTQI individuals may be unable to ac-16 cess a government’s COVID support services due to 17 discrimination. In response, LGBTQI-led civil soci-
18 ety organizations have been forced to shift their pro-
19 grams to provide humanitarian support to their com-20 munities, sidelining other programs previously per-21 formed in their communities.

22 SEC. 4. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

23 It is the policy of the United States—

24 (1) to take effective action to prevent and re-
25 spond to discrimination and violence against all peo-

1 ple on any basis internationally, including sexual ori-
2 entation, gender identity, and sex characteristics, 3 and that human rights policy includes attention to 4 criminalization, hate crimes, and other discrimina-
5 tion against LGBTQI people;

6 (2) to systematically integrate and coordinate 7 into United States foreign policy efforts to prevent 8 and respond to criminalization, discrimination, and 9 violence against LGBTQI people internationally;

10 (3) to support and build local capacity in coun-11 tries around the world, including of governments at 12 all levels and nongovernmental organizations, to pre-

14 and violence against LGBTQI people internationally;

15 (4) to consult, cooperate, coordinate, and col-
16 laborate with a wide variety of nongovernmental 17 partners, including faith-based organizations and 18 LGBTQI-led organizations, with demonstrated expe-
19 rience in preventing and responding to criminaliza-
20 tion, discrimination, and violence against LGBTQI
21 people internationally;

22 (5) to employ a multisectoral approach to pre-
23 venting and responding to criminalization, discrimi-
24 nation, and violence against LGBTQI people inter-

1 nationally, including activities in the economic, edu-
2 cation, health, nutrition, legal, and judicial sectors;

3 (6) to work at all levels, from the individual to 4 the family, community, local, national, and inter-5 national levels, to prevent and respond to criminal-
6 ization, discrimination, and violence against 7 LGBTQI people internationally;

8 (7) to enhance training by United States per-9 sonnel of professional foreign military and police 10 forces and judicial officials to include appropriate 11 and thorough LGBTQI-specific instruction on pre-
12 venting and responding to criminalization, discrimi-
13 nation, and violence based on sexual orientation and 14 gender identity;

15 (8) to engage non-LGBTQI people as allies and 16 partners, as an essential element of making sus-
17 tained reductions in criminalization, discrimination,
18 and violence against LGBTQI people internationally;

19 (9) to require that all Federal contractors and 20 grant recipients in the United States Government's 21 international programs establish appropriate policies
22 and take effective measures to ensure the protection 23 and safety of their staff and workplace, including 24 from discrimination and violence directed against

1 LGBTQI people and those who provide services to 2 them;

3 (10) to exert sustained international leadership,
4 including in bilateral and multilateral fora, to pre-5 vent and respond to criminalization, discrimination,
6 and violence against LGBTQI people internationally;

7 (11) to fully implement and expand upon the 8 policies outlined in the “Presidential Memo-9 randum—International Initiatives to Advance the 10 Human Rights of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and 11 Transgender Persons”;

12 (12) to ensure that international efforts to com-
13 bat HIV/AIDS take all appropriate measures to sup-14 port at-risk communities, including LGBTQI people, 15 and to create enabling legal environments for these 16 communities;

17 (13) to work with governments and nongovern-
18 mental partners around the world to develop and im-
19 plement regional strategies to decriminalize homo-
20 sexuality and to counteract the prohibition of public 21 support of LGBTQI people; and

22 (14) to ensure that those who have a well-23 founded fear of persecution on account of being 24 LGBTQI or supporting LGBTQI rights have the op-
25 portunity to seek protection in the United States.

25 foreign governments and nongovernmental or-

1 organizations to prevent and respond to criminal-
2 ization, discrimination, and violence against 3 LGBTQI people and communities internation-

8 sponse efforts; and

10 global strategy in preventing and reducing 11 criminalization, discrimination, and violence
12 against LGBTQI people and communities inter-13 nationally.

14 (2) INFORMATION REQUIRED TO BE INCLUDED
15 IN ANNUAL COUNTRY REPORTS ON HUMAN RIGHTS
16 PRACTICES.—

17 (A) SECTION 116.—Section 116(d) of the 18 Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C.
19 2151n(d)) is amended—

20 (i) in paragraph (11)(C), by striking 21 “; and” and inserting a semicolon;

22 (ii) in paragraph (12)(C)(ii), by strik-
